CLASS HISTORY

"In ourselves our future lies" is our class motto. We sincerely believe in every word of this. No matter what field of life one chooses to enter, these words seem to hold true. No one else except oneself can make one succeed. The future, we believe, lies in each and everyone of us. "In ourselves our future lies."

Our class flower is the white rose bud. Our class colors are scarlet and gray. On the night of Baccalaureate, however, we will wear blue and white caps and gowns, the white and blue to represent school colors.

We have for our class advisor, Mr. Snell. He has borne the troubles of our class for the last three years, and he has been a great asset to our class. We express our appreciation by dedicating this annual to him.

In the first six grades our teachers were Miss Abbott, Miss Lee, Miss Grabenstetter, Mrs. Bixler, and Miss Oncu.

We started in the first grade with only six of those who are going to graduate with us: Tom Wolfe, Lois Otterbacher, Mary Rose Walter, Bill Huttinger, Bob Muntz, and Donald Dobson. We gained Jim Wiencek in the second grade, Sonia Kozub in the fifth, Rita Deimling in the seventh, Eunice Smith in the ninth, Stanely Kopec in the eleventh, and Richard Oberaitis in the twelfth. This now composes our senior graduating class-twelve of us.

"In ourselves our future lies."

WESTWARD EXPANSION

Enroute to San Fransico, California, to enter my new position as a wholesale buyer, I met Stanely Kopec.

"Well, Stan," I inquired, "where are you bound for?"

"After an important appointment I had with Mr. Bigly, a top real estate dealer and contractor, I signed a contract with him. You know, Clark Gable needs some competition in Hollywood. Also maybe a house."

"By the way," I said, "have you seen any of the old classmates of 1951 lately?"

"Why, yes, before I left Cincinnati, I met Lois Otterbacher at lunch one day. She told me that she was teaching the girls some good basketball at North High there."

Just then the porter ambled through the car toward the Pullman. Behind him was a tall man, looking very familiar. I said to Stan, "Isn't that Dick Oberaitis?"

He said , "Why, yes! Hi, Dick! Won't you even speak to an old friend?"

We sat awhile with Dick, and soon we were in St. Louis; so we decided to go to see Eunice Smith, now Mrs. Reynolds, who was living here. She told us that she was fine. We saw her beautiful new home.

After our visit with Eunice, having received a previous invitation from Dick, we stopped at the printer' department of the St. Louis Times where he was working. It was quite interesting, to my surprise.

We hailed a taxi on Sixth Street to return to the train. When we paid the fare, we identified the driver as Bob Muntz. He told us if we had time, we should stop in Logan, Utah, to see Bill Huttinger. He owned the Bar Z-Ranch near there.

We boarded the train again, and, very shortly, we left St. Louis.

It was so hot that we sat on the observation platform. As we passed several plants, we saw a large sign, "WOLFE". We knew immediately that must be where Tom had bought a chemical plant.

We shifted the subject quickly as a young lady came out to occupy the vacant seat beside us.

"Sonia Kozub!" I exclaimed. "What are you doing here?"

She said that she was a private secretary to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and traveling for his firm.

At Denver, a nice looking woman boarded the train. Who was she? Why, of course! It was Rita Deimling. She was a social worker in Denver. We all spent an interesting hour reminiscing.

She told us that back home in Valley City, Donald Dobson had inherited his father's farm and was making good. In fact, he'd just bought a new Buick to add to his collection.

At Salt Lake City, Rita left us, but promised to write.

At last, we arrived in Los Angeles in the afternoon. We both had reservations already made at the Ambassador. So we decided to go to dinner. First of all, we decided to call Jim Wiencek, who was operating four funeral parlors here. We asked him if he possibly could make it to dinner at 8:00. He said, "Sure". So we proceeded to get ready.

We went to the Coconut Grove for dinner and dancing. After a most enjoyable evening, we departed. Early the next morning, Stan left for Hollywood. In the afternoon I am to meet my new employers.

Goodbye, Stan, and loads of success in building those new homes in Hollywood!

Prom

JUNIORS

To begin the year, we received the candy and ice cream concessions at noon.

Before we knew it, the magazine subscription sale began. Top seller was Evelyn McClelland, who won a fountain pen.

The Homecoming Dance on November 4 came next, with Margaret Abram as one of the attendants.

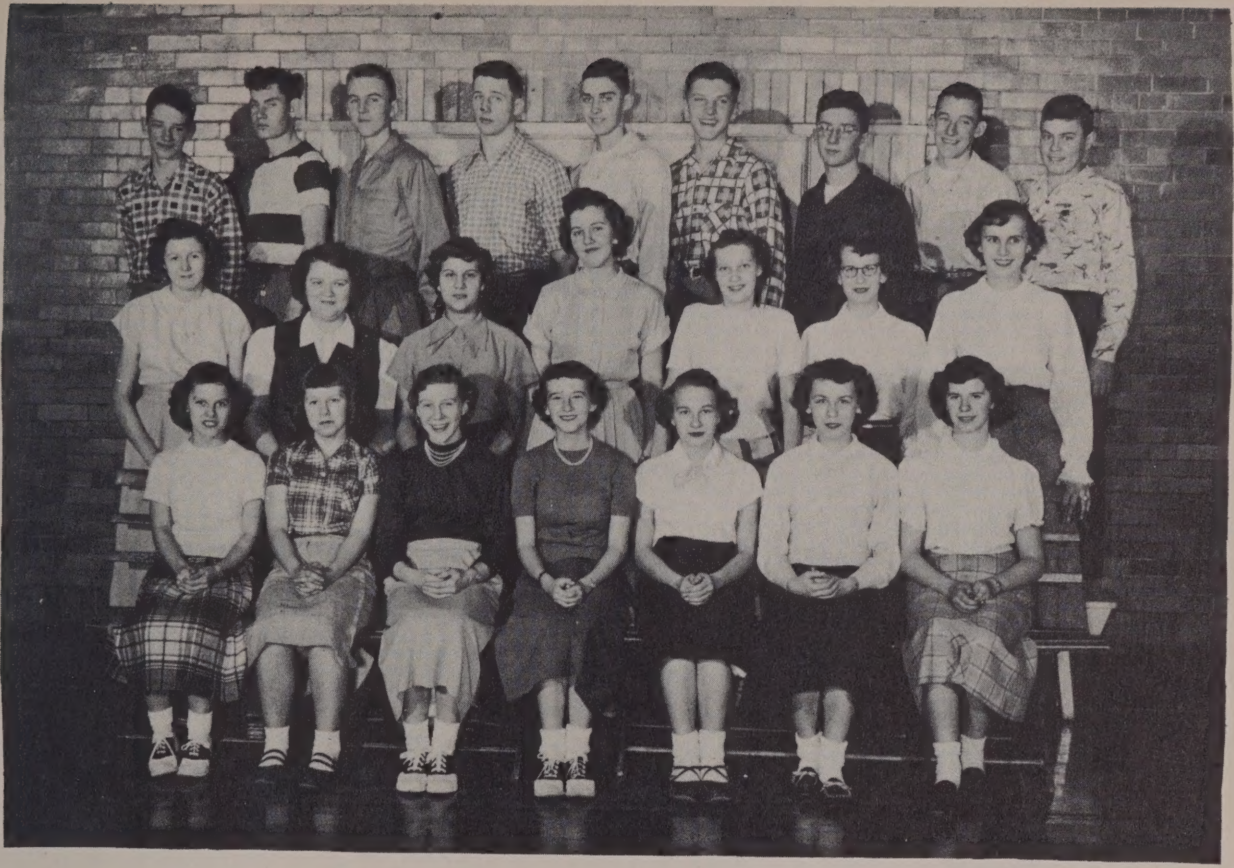
On November 17, the junior class play, The Boarding House Reach, was a big success under the direction of Miss Enevoldsen. Seven boys and seven girls participated,

On May 19, the Junior-Senior Prom is to be held at Monsenas.

Lastly, on May 5, the May Dance is to be held in the Liverpool Auditorium with music by Heins Orchestra.

Our officers include: president, Claire Wuensch; vice-president, Don Metzger; and secretary-treasurer, Don Hauck.

SOPHOMORES



This year, 1950-51, our class voted Tom Stoskopf as their president, June Brackney as vice-president, Janet Hilty as secretary, and Jean Huttinger was put in charge of our treasury. Miss Kutsko is our class advisor.

We started the year off with a concession at five of the home basketball games. We also tried having dances after home games, but it did not work out as we had planned.

We had a party for the Freshmen class at the beginning of the school year. We played several games and we danced. It turned out to be very successful.

We have taken part in all of the school activities as follows: basketball, football, band, and mixed chorus.

Most of you know that Kay Yost represented our class by becoming attendant to the Homecoming Queen.

We managed to have two of our girls on the cheerleading squad. Marilyn Muntz was just new this year while this is Kay Yost's second year.

With the assistance of Miss Kutsko and the cooperation of our class we are having a very successful year.

FRESHMEN

Well! We're here at last. Twenty Freshmen of Liverpool High School. Most of us have made the journey from first to ninth grade together, and we hope that we can finish our four years of high school together.

As usual, we have a new class advisor, Miss Enevoldsen. We would like to suggest keeping the same advisor, because we feel that more could be accomplished.

To usher us in our high school career, the sophomores planned an initiation in the form of a good time for us. We liked it very much. Thanks, Sophomores!

Having most of our years before us, we decided to postpone earning money until 1951, except for basketball concessions, so that other classes with less time might have a chance.

Since we're on the basketball subject, we might as well mention that some of the stars are in our class. And don't forget it-even if we are "greenies"!

Also, to prove that even Freshmen can be beauties, Marlene Muntz was an attendant to the 1950 Homecoming Queen.

A small record, but be looking for more from us!

Our officers are: President, Don Bramely; Vice-President, Marlene Muntz; Secretary, Ruth Faur; Treasurer, Lois Ann Weigel; and Historian, Lois Stoskopf.

ACTIVITIES

The Liverpool Hi-Y and Y-Teens enjoyed an extremely successful year.

With the hard work of our advisors, Mr. Gove and Miss Kutsko, and the undivided cooperation of the members, the Christmas Ball was a huge success.

The Hi-Y boys conducted a paper drive in the fall, and a scrap and paper drive in the spring. The proceeds netted from these two projects, together with other Hi-Y funds, were used for the purchase of new backboards and a new electric scoreboard for our gym.

The Y-Teens, together with the Hi-Y, provided for several assemblies during the year. They also arranged the March P.T.A. program. Y-Teens membership this year totals 38; and the Hi-Y has 34 enrolled.

Our hope is that future Hi-Y and Y-Teens groups will enjoy the same impartial cooperation and ultimate success that our clubs have experienced this year.

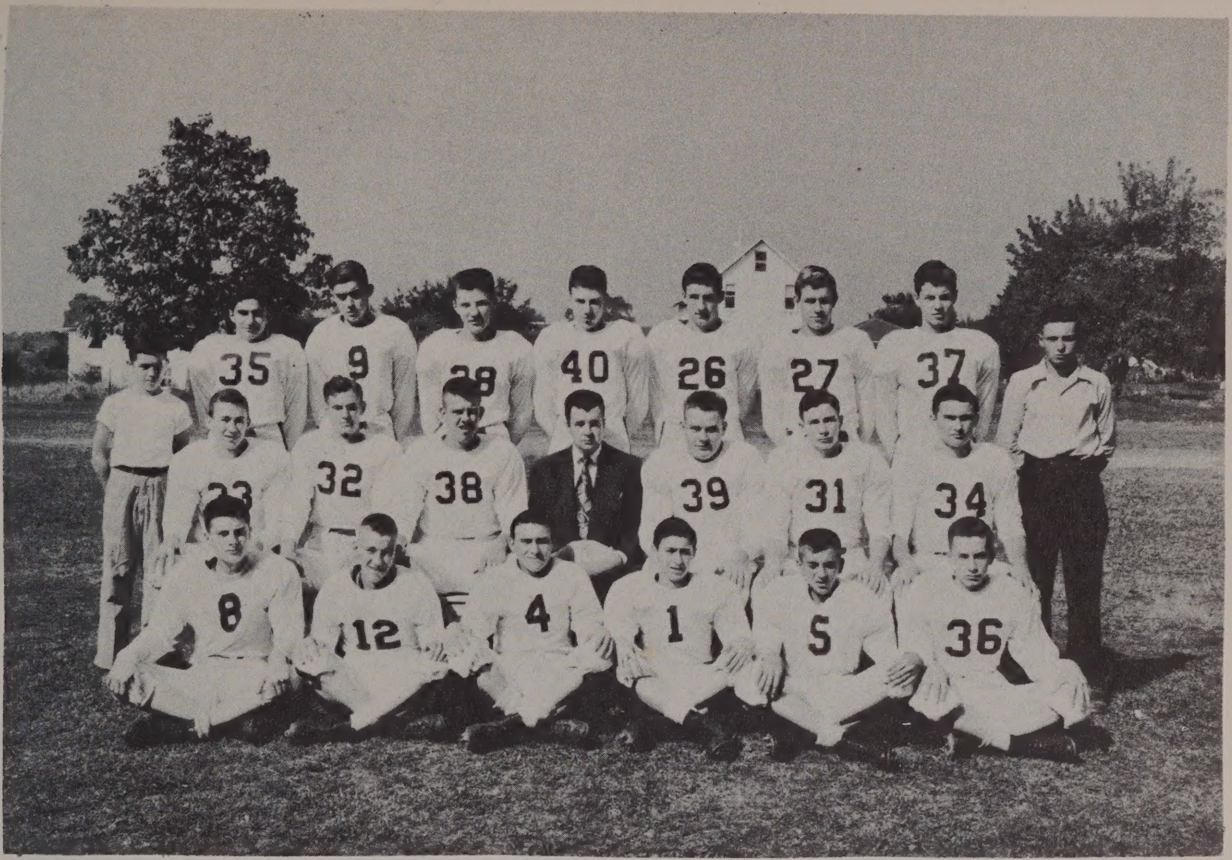
ATHLETICS

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

When basketball season opened, the following four girls were elected cheerleaders: Lois Otterbacher, Kay Yost, Joanne Hilty, and Marilyn Muntz. Lois and Kay were veterans while Joanne and Marilyn were elected from Junior High teams.

The girls practiced the whole season, always looking forward to the tournament. New endings and turns were added to their cheers. But we got third place this year. Lois made the all-county first team and Kay got honorable mention.



First Row: Don Hauck, Jerry Dobson, Ted Haury, Jerry West, John Brooks, Carl Kovalchik.

Third Row: Kenneth Lizotte, Bob Nahigyan, Louis Winterfield, Melvin Kemrite, Bob Yost, John Abend, Fred Gruelich, Don Bramely, Bob Nichols.

The 1950 edition of the Liverpool football team reported for practice Sept. 1, with a nucleus of three regulars returning from the 1949 squad. They were: Jim Wiencek at halfback, Tom Wolfe at quarterback and Sam Arnold at center. Up from the 1949 reserves, Stan Kopec and Tom Mack at the ends and Ralph Tumbush at halfback, filled out the varsity lineup.

In our opening game we defeated Columbia 33 to 6, as Wolfe and Wiencek led the attack. The following week, we met a squad composed of alumni from the 1947 and county championship 1948 teams. In a bruising battle we won 25 to 13. Our third game and first in the league saw York as our opponent on the Abbeyville field. The defensive work of Kopec and Arnold smashed York's attack and we scored at ease to win 47 to 0.

Spencer provided little oppostion in the second league game. The varsity scored five times in its first six plays from scrimmage, then watched the reserves play out our fourth straight victory, 39 to 7.

The third league game found Chatham to be no threat to our perfect record. Wiencek ran around, through and over the Oilers as we won 45 to 0.

Lodi was no match for our great defensive unit. The Tigers failed to score on seven consecutive plays from within our one yard line. Both Ralph Tumbush and Carl Kovalchik were impressive as we won 33 to 0.

Sharon-Granger was next. This was the big one, since they were the team that broke our twelve-game winning streak last year, handing Liverpool its only loss in 1949 and defeating us for the championship.

The game was played at Wadsworth, before a crowd of 2500, in a driving rain. Tom Wolfe was out of the starting lineup, having suffered torn knee ligaments in the last minute of the Lodi game, and prospects were dim. But in the second quarter, Wolfe went in to run the team, and Wiencek did the rest. Jim scored all 25 of our points, while playing a whale of a defensive game. Not to be overlooked is the is the job of sharp tackling Ralph Tumbush turned in. The score...... LIVERPOOL 25, SHARON-GRANGER 20.

FOOTBALL CONTINUED

We brought home Liverpool's second county football championship by defeating Hinckley 21 to 6. The game was played in freezing rain, with ponds of water six to eight inches deep dotting the field. It was a night the boys will never forget.

Tom Wolfe separated his shoulder in practice for the ninth and final game of the season and was unable to participate. Playing Haysville of Ashland County, we got off to a slow start, leading only 14 to 13 at the half. Jim Wiencek then concluded his high school football career by running wild in the second half to score seven touchdowns, making it nine for the evening. The final score read 58 to 31, and Liverpool had its first undefeated and untied season. Bob Nahigyan, playing in Wolfe's place, proved a capable quarterback.

This football season was the most successful in the four-year duration of the sport at Liverpool. Hard work, eagerness to learn and the will to win were the answers to an undefeated season.

The team scored 325 points to our opponents 83, an average of 36.1 points a game against 9.2. Jim Wiencek broke his own scoring record of 155 points, counting 158 this year. Tom Wolfe scored 54, Ralph Tumbush 35, Stan Kopec 2, Carl Kovalchik 16, Jerry West 13, Bob Nahigyan 12, Melvin Kemrite 7, Sam Arnold 6, Fred Gruelich 1, and Ted Haury 1.

A lot of credit goes to the substitutes like Abend, who became our first-string defensive end in the last game, Nahigyan, West, Kovalchik, Grulich, Yost, Bramley, Dobson, Winterfield, Kemrite, Haury, Brooks, Hauck and J. Slayton.

The defensive team of Arnold, Kopec, Mack, Wiencek, Wolfe, Tumbush and Abend was tremendous in compiling its outstanding defensive record.

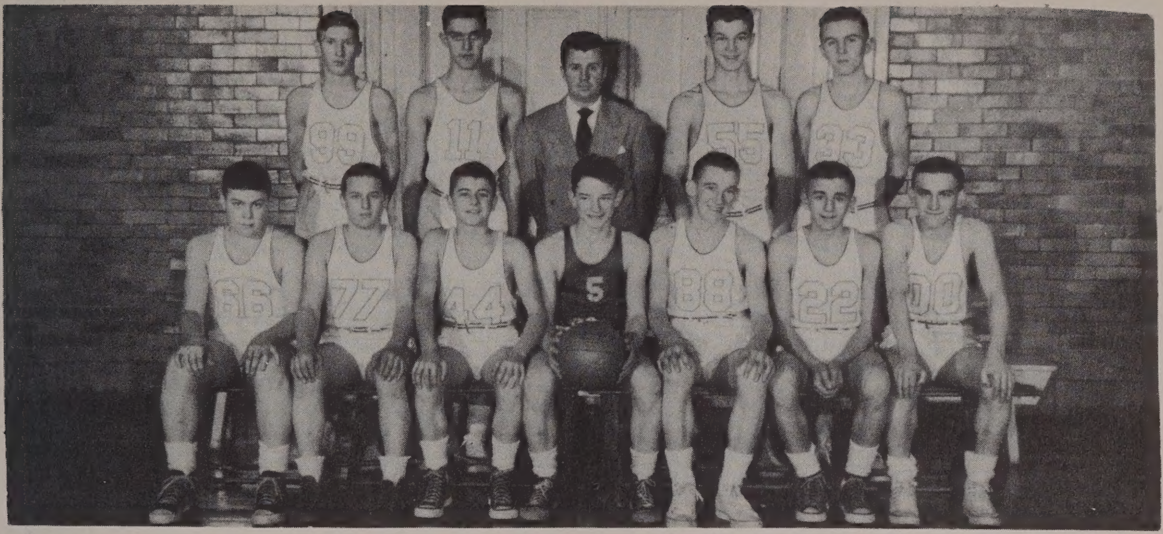
Starting our basketball season without a member of last years first five, we lost our opening league game to Homer 46 to 43. Our next two games with Spencer 45 to 43 and Chatham 43 to 38 were losses. Brunswick defeated us 56 to 26 in their gym.

After four straight losses we won our first game defeating Hinckley 39 to 29. The Hinckley game saw the return of Tom Wolfe, last years only regular who was injured during football season.

The team started a six game losing streak losing to Seville 46-33, LeRoy 45-42, York 38-25, Elyria Catholic 53-47, Granger-Sharon 33-31.

In our following game we pulled the biggest upset of the year by defeating Lodi 43 to 34 on Lodi's floor. It was their first league loss and knocked them out of first place. Our winning streak was stopped at one and then we lost four more in a row to Brunswick 64-27, Chatham 33-27, Belden 65-46, Richfield 57-52. Our last game of the season ended with a thrilling last minute win over LeRoy 54-53.

We drew Lodi in the tournament and lost 45-28. Our record shows three wins against fifteen defeats but it doesn't show that we lost most of our games by the closest of margins. Greenness in our team and the inability to score changed these potential wins into defeats.



First Row: Louis Morlock, John Bauer, Duane Brooks, Bob Stovicek, Jerry Dobson, John Brooks, Ted Haury.
